INTRODUCTION

Introduction

An Overview of Section 504

The purpose of this document is to provide technical assistance to Area Education Agencies (AEA), general education staff, and parents regarding their obligations and rights under Section 504 and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

With passage of the Rehabilitation Act, Congress required that federal fund recipients make their programs and activities accessible to all individuals with disabilities.

“No otherwise qualified individual with a disability in the United States, as defined in section 705 (20) of this title, shall, solely by reason of her or his disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance. . . .” 29 U.S.C. § 794 (a).

Section 504 of the Act protects persons from discrimination based upon their disability status. A person is disabled under the definition of Section 504 if he or she:

- (1) has a mental or physical impairment which substantially limits one or more of such person’s major life activities;
- (2) has a record of such impairments; or
- (3) is regarded as having such impairment.

“Major life activities” include functions such as caring for one’s self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working. When a condition does not substantially limit a major life activity, the individual does not qualify under Section 504.

This document covers the following areas of the Rehabilitation Act:

- (1) requirements for preschool, elementary, and secondary education including program accessibility and
- (2) what it means to administrators/teachers/parents/students.

General Provisions (34 C.F.R. Pt. 104, Subpart A)

The responsibilities of public agencies who receive federal funds in regards to non-discrimination of individuals with disabilities are outlined in Subpart A of Title 34 of the Code of Federal Regulations. “No qualified handicapped person shall, on the basis of handicap, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity which receives Federal financial assistance.” 34 C.F.R. 104.4(a).

Recipient Programs Must Comply with the Following Requirements:

- (1) Provide written assurances of non-discrimination when applying for federal funds;

- (2) Take steps to eliminate discrimination against individuals with disabilities;
- (3) Conduct a self-evaluation of their programs and activities to ensure discriminatory practices are eliminated;
- (4) Appoint a Section 504 Coordinator for schools with 15 or more employees;
- (5) Provide public notice of non discrimination.
- (6) Adopt School Board non-discrimination policy based on disability.
- (7) Provide grievance procedure for processing parent and student complaints of discrimination based on disability.
- (8) Disseminate information regarding policy, identity of Section 504 Coordinator, and grievance procedure.

Program Accessibility (34 C.F.R. Pt. 104, Subpart C)

“No qualified handicapped person shall, because a recipient's facilities are inaccessible to or unusable by handicapped persons, be denied the benefits of, be excluded from participation in, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity to which this part applies.” 34 C.F.R. 104.21.

Requirements for Preschool, Elementary, and Secondary Education (34 C.F.R. Pt. 104, Subpart D)

Elementary and secondary school recipients operating preschool and adult education programs must take into account the needs of qualified persons with disabilities in determining the aid, benefits, or services to be provided under these programs or activities.

Section 504 and IDEA

There has been much confusion regarding the relationship between Section 504 and special education laws and regulations. It must be emphasized that Section 504 falls under the responsibility of the general education program. The school staff and parents need to work in collaboration to help guarantee that the student is provided with the necessary accommodations and /or services. A student who is found to be disabled under Section 504 should be served by the staff and resources of the general education program. The exception to this standard would be a student who has been determined eligible as disabled under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). Such a student could receive special education and accommodations required under Section 504. This means a student qualified under IDEA is a student protected under Section 504.

Eligibility

If a district has reason to believe that, because of a disability as defined under Section 504, a student needs special accommodations or service in the general education setting in order to participate in the school program, the district must evaluate the student. If it is determined that the student is disabled under Section 504, the district must develop and implement the delivery of all needed services and/or accommodations.

Services

The determination of what services and/or accommodations are needed must be made by a group of persons knowledgeable about the student. The parents should be included in this process whenever possible. This group must review the nature of the disability and how it affects one of life's major functions: walking, speaking, hearing, seeing, learning, performing manual tasks, working, and breathing. The decisions about Section 504 eligibility and services should be documented in the student's file and reviewed periodically.

In summary, it is important to keep in mind that some students who have physical or mental conditions that limit their ability to access and participate in the general education program are entitled to rights under Section 504 even though they may not fall into IDEA categories and may not be covered by the special education law.

EXAMPLES

Examples

Possibly Eligible Persons Under Section 504

This is a nonexhaustive list of examples to assist you in thinking about the accommodation and services students with a disability may need in order to benefit from the academic programs of a school district.

ATTENTION DEFICIT DISORDER (ADD) AND ATTENTION DEFICIT HYPERACTIVE DISORDER (ADHD) – The student does not meet eligibility requirements under IDEA as emotionally disturbed, learning disabled, or other health impaired. The student is regarded as having a disability (ADD) by a doctor. The disability limits the major life activity of learning. Not because the student is not getting A's and B's, but rather the student's hyper-attention or non attention is causing the student to not succeed; therefore, supports could be put into place to help the student succeed in the general education setting.

ACQUIRED IMMUNE DEFICIENCY SYNDROME (AIDS) – The student frequently misses school and does not have the strength to attend a full day. This student has a record of a disability which substantially limits the life activities of learning and working.

ARTHRITIS – A student with arthritis may have persistent pain, tenderness or swelling in one or more joints. A student experiencing arthritic pain may require a modified physical education program.

CANCER – A student with a long term medical problem may be given considerations to accommodate special needs. For example, a student with cancer may need a class schedule that allows for rest and recuperation following chemotherapy.

EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED – A student who is emotionally disturbed may need an adjusted class schedule to allow time for regular counseling or therapy.

HOMEBOUND – A student was in an automobile accident and will require homebound services for three months. The student is considered disabled under Section 504 and should receive special accommodations.

OBESITY – A student has an extreme eating disorder that may require special accommodations. Obesity may be considered a disability under Section 504 where it substantially impairs a major life activity or is perceived by others as doing so.

STUDENT WITH SPECIAL HEALTH CARE NEEDS – The student has a special health care concern and requires clean intermittent catheterization twice each day. This procedure empties the bladder and helps prevent urinary tract infections and possible wetting. The school is required to provide trained personnel to perform the procedure, or to provide the student a private location to perform the procedure.

DISTRICT LEVEL
RESPONSIBILITIES

Understanding Section 504

Free Appropriate Public Education

A school district has the responsibility to provide a free appropriate public education to students with disabilities under Section 504. Unlike Section 504 requirements for physical accessibility or employment, the Office of Civil Rights (OCR) has determined there is no financial standard of undue hardship for education. Students eligible for Section 504 services are to receive related services similar to those students eligible for special education services. Related services are those services which assist students with disabilities to benefit from the education program and can include counseling services, transportation or health services.

Section 504 requires a written plan describing placement and services. Placement decisions must be based on information drawn from a variety of sources, and all information must be documented as considered. Although a formal IEP, as required by the IDEA, is not required, placement decisions must be made by a group of persons knowledgeable about the student, about the meaning of the evaluation data and about placement options. The educational accommodation plan should be signed by all members of the student's team. In summary:

- (1) Accommodations must be individualized;
- (2) Modifications can be made to regular programs, or the provision of different programs may be necessary; and
- (3) Accommodations should be designed to meet the individual educational needs of students with disabilities as adequately as the needs of other students are met. 34 C.F.R. 104.33(b).

School districts must establish and implement procedures regarding the identification, evaluation and educational placement of students with disabilities. School districts must incorporate a system of procedural safeguards that include notice, an opportunity for the parents or guardian to examine relevant records, an impartial hearing, an opportunity for participation by the student's parents or guardian, representation by counsel, and a review procedure.

To be in compliance with Section 504, school districts generally must:

- (1) adopt a
 - (a) nondiscrimination policy, provide notice of nondiscrimination in admission or access to programs or activities. Notice must be included in a student/parent handbook and in major annual publications or formal communications targeted to these groups;
 - (b) develop a grievance procedure (see appendix A for grievance procedures) appoint a compliance officer who can be the same individual used as a compliance officer for issues arising under Title IX, Title VII, etc;
- (2) annually notify students with disabilities and their parents or guardians of the school district's responsibilities under Section 504, including:

- (a) notice of their rights,
 - (b) an opportunity to review relevant records, and
 - (c) right to an impartial hearing. Parents or guardians must be notified of their right to request a hearing regarding the identification, evaluation or educational placement of students with disabilities (see appendix B)
- (3) identify and evaluate students with disabilities or suspected disabilities;
 - (4) implement an appropriate education program for students with disabilities;
 - (5) have a self-evaluation and transition plans on file (see Definitions on page 60); and
 - (6) annually identify and locate all children with disabilities in the district's jurisdiction who are not receiving a public education.

Procedural Safeguards

In complying with Section 504, it is important to remember that parents and students have specific rights, and the school district must be careful not to deprive parents or students of those rights or infringe upon those rights.

- (1) The parents have a right to be notified in writing of any decisions made by the school district concerning the identification, evaluations or educational placement of students pursuant to Section 504. While parental consent is not mentioned in Section 504, it is preferable to seek parental support for the evaluation of the student as well as for implementation of the accommodation plan.
- (2) The parents have a right to examine, copy, and request amendments to the student's educational records.
- (3) The parents have a right to an impartial hearing regarding school district decisions. However, parents are encouraged to first attempt to resolve any disputes or conflicts utilizing the Resolution Facilitation process. This statewide mediation process is available through each of Iowa's AEAs. The person acting as the mediator is called the Resolution Facilitator. Parents and guardians can request a Resolution Facilitator from the local AEA or from a nonlocal AEA. The AEA reserves discretion in providing a Resolution Facilitator.
- (4) The parents have a right to further review the impartial hearing officer's decision and a right to file a formal complaint with the Office of Civil Rights.
- (5) Students who have been evaluated and determined to not need special education services under an Individual Education Program (IEP) should be notified of their potential right to related services and aids under Section 504.

Closure to Section 504

When a student no longer needs Section 504 accommodations, the student's team should meet to make the determination. The team should document that the student no longer needs the accommodations. The team should also notify the parents, if the parents were not involved. Records of the student's prior accommodations should be kept in the same manner as IDEA records when a student no longer needs special education services.

Section 504 Student and Parental Rights

The _____ Community School District does not discriminate in its educational programs and activities on the basis of a student's disability. It has been determined that your child has a qualifying disability for which related services and aids need to be provided to meet his or her individual needs as adequately as the needs of other students. As a parent, you have the right to the following:

- (1) Participation of your child in school district programs and activities, including extracurricular programs and activities, to the maximum extent appropriate, free of discrimination based upon the student's disability and at the same level as students without disabilities;
- (2) Receipt of free educational services to the extent they are provided to students without disabilities;
- (3) Receipt of information about your child and your child's educational programs and activities in your native language;
- (4) Notice of identification of your child as having a qualifying disability for which accommodations may need to be made and notice prior to evaluation and placement of your child and right to periodically request a re-evaluation of your child;
- (5) Inspect and review your child's educational records including a right to copy those records for a reasonable fee; you also have a right to ask the school district to amend your child's educational records if you feel the information in the records is misleading or inaccurate; should the school district refuse to amend the records, you have a right to a hearing and to place an explanatory letter in your child's file explaining why you feel the records are misleading or inaccurate;
- (6) Hearing before an impartial hearing officer if you disagree with your child's evaluation or placement; you have a right to counsel at the hearing and have the decision of the impartial hearing officer reviewed.

Inquiries concerning the school district's compliance with the regulations implementing Title VI, Title IX, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Section 504 or Iowa Code § 280.3 should be directed to:

(Title) _____

(Where located) _____

(Telephone No.) _____

who has been designated by the school district to coordinate the district's efforts to comply with the regulations implementing Title VI, Title IX, the ADA, Section 504 and Iowa Code § 280.3.

School District Section 504 Policy Statement

School districts should review their existing “nondiscrimination policy” with particular emphasis on Subpart D of Section 504 (A copy of the rules and regulations pertaining to Subpart D is available on page 65.). In some instances, the existing policy may be sufficient. In other instances, districts may wish to revise their policy or develop a separate statement concerning nondiscrimination in education programs. As a minimum, a school district policy should include:

- (1) an affirmative statement that the district does not discriminate on the basis of disability,
- (2) reference to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and
- (3) reference to a referral/evaluation/placement process for students suspected of being disabled under Section 504.

Administrator’s Responsibilities

Section 504 Coordination

The general provisions of Section 504 together with other federal nondiscrimination laws require the designation of a person to coordinate the school district’s efforts to comply with its various components. The coordinator’s activities could include some or all of the following:

1. Establishment and monitoring of a Section 504 referral/identification/review process.
2. Maintenance of data on Section 504 referrals.
3. Staff and parent awareness and training activities concerning Section 504 requirements.
4. Implementation of Section 504 grievance procedures.
5. Establishment and monitoring of an impartial hearing process.
6. Work in partnership with the local Director of Special Education.
7. Serve as the school district liaison with the Regional Office for Civil Rights.
8. Discuss and plan possible staff in-service on issues Section 504 issues.

The Section 504 Coordinator could be someone already employed by the school district. Preferably it should be a regular education administrator who is knowledgeable about federal laws and regulations. It is a recommendation to use the same individual as the ADA/Equity Coordinator.

Section 504/Americians with Disabilities Act Requirement Checklist

The following is a checklist for the purpose of judging compliance with Section 504.

- (1) The school district has on file a self-evaluation and transition plan. This plan includes information concerning inaccessible facilities and the steps that the school district would take in order to make all programs accessible to individuals with disabilities. It also includes an evaluation of school district policies and procedures and plans to bring them into compliance with Section 504.
- (2) The school district is currently in compliance with its Section 504 self-evaluation and transition plan.
- (3) Elementary and secondary programming—including extracurricular activities, field trips, athletics, etc.—are accessible to students with disabilities.
- (4) Each service, program or activity conducted by the school district, when viewed in its entirety, is readily accessible and usable by individuals with disabilities.
- (5) The school district maintains, in good operating condition, those features of each program which makes the program accessible to individuals with disabilities. The school district has access to a TDD for the benefit of individuals with speech or hearing disabilities.
- (6) School district facilities or portions of such facilities which are not readily accessible to persons with disabilities have appropriate signage directing individuals to facilities which are accessible. School board meetings or other public meetings conducted by the school district are held in facilities that are readily accessible to individuals with disabilities including, when necessary, the provision of a sign language interpreter.
- (7) The school district provides annual notice to parents, students, employees, and the public that it does not discriminate in its employment or educational activities and programs.
- (8) The school district has a grievance procedure in place to deal with discrimination complaints.

BUILDING
LEVEL
RESPONSIBILITIES

School Building Responsibilities

Non Discrimination Program Accessibility

In accordance with the Section 504 regulation, no qualified individual with disabilities shall be denied the benefits of, be excluded from participation in, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity because the school facilities are inaccessible or unusable. The Section 504 regulation requires all recipients of federal financial assistance to operate their programs or activities so they are readily accessible to students with disabilities.

The regulation contains two standards to be used in determining whether programs and activities are accessible to individuals with disabilities. One standard deals with “existing” facilities; the other deals with “new” construction. The term “existing facility” means the facility was in existence or in the process of construction before June 3, 1977, the effective date of the regulation. The term “new construction” means groundbreaking took place on or after the effective date of the regulation.

Leased facilities (mobile units) that are leased or constructed with federal funds are required to meet the standards of new construction. Other leased units are required to meet the standards of existing facilities.

The standard for a facility existing before June 3, 1977, requires that federally assisted programs or activities operated in that facility must, when viewed in their entirety, be readily accessible. This standard does not require that every facility or part be accessible, as long as the program or activity as a whole is accessible. Thus, recipients need not make structural changes to facilities.

One example of an alternative method in a school would be the relocation of classes, activities or services to an accessible site. Facility alteration or new construction is required to achieve program accessibility only if sufficient relocation of classes, activities or services cannot be housed in an existing facility. In meeting the objective of program accessibility, the school must take precautions not to isolate or concentrate students with disabilities in settings away from students without disabilities.

The regulation does require that all new construction begun after June 3, 1977, as well as alterations to existing facilities, must be designed and constructed so as to make facilities accessible and usable by individuals with disabilities.

Student Evaluation

The school is obligated under Section 504 to provide parental notice and conduct an individual evaluation for any student who, because of a suspected disability, might need specialized instruction and/or related services. The following are some considerations for meeting Section 504 evaluation requirements:

- (1) The school could use special education evaluation staff or other evaluators as assigned. The decision of who conducts the evaluation should be made by the school administrator. The evaluation team must be knowledgeable about the student, be familiar with the evaluation data, placement options, and accommodations/intervention.
- (2) Each evaluation should be tailored to the specific needs of the student.
- (3) The parents need to be notified before the evaluation is conducted. Consent is not required, but is considered best practice.
- (4) Tests and other evaluation materials should be validated for the specific purpose for which they are used and administered by trained personnel in conformance with the instructions provided by their producer.
- (5) Tests and other evaluation materials include those tailored to assess specific areas of educational need.
- (6) Tests are selected to ensure that, when a test is administered to a student with impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills, the results accurately reflect whatever the test(s) are designed to measure.
- (7) In order to interpret evaluation data to make placement or accommodation decisions, a school should draw upon information from a variety of sources, including aptitude and achievement tests, teacher recommendations, physical condition, social or cultural background and adaptive behavior, and classroom performance.
- (8) A school should establish procedures for periodic reevaluation of students. A reevaluation should be conducted before any significant change in placement. A reevaluation procedure consistent with the IDEA is a way to meet this requirement.

Free Appropriate Education

Schools must provide a free appropriate education to Section 504 school-age individuals with disabilities in their jurisdiction. Instruction must be individually designed to meet the needs of the student as adequately as the needs of students without disabilities. This standard of what is “appropriate” differs from the IDEA “appropriate” standard which requires the district to design a program reasonably calculated to confer educational benefit. Section 504 requires reasonable accommodations.

Although Section 504 does not require school districts to develop an IEP with annual goals and objectives, it is recommended the school document that services and/or accommodations for each eligible Section 504 student are being provided. If a student requires extensive accommodations, a team knowledgeable about the student must meet to develop a plan that outlines the services and accommodations. Parent participation should always be encouraged.

The quality of educational services provided to individuals with disabilities must be equivalent to the services provided to non-disabled students. Teachers, administrators, staff, and parents should receive ongoing training in the instruction of individuals with disabilities and be knowledgeable about appropriate materials and equipment.

Discipline

Students who are eligible for Section 504 accommodations and services as well as services under the IDEA are disciplined consistent with the IDEA. To discipline a student who is receiving Section 504 accommodations and services but who is not receiving services under the IDEA, administrators need to go through an analysis similar to the IDEA, but the analysis may have different results.

In disciplining a student:

- (1) The administrator needs to determine whether the student committed the infraction of which the student is accused.
- (2) The student's team needs to determine whether the behavior was caused by the disability (manifestation conference).
 - (a) If so, the student's team determines whether the accommodation plan is appropriate and whether the student needs special education services.
 - (b) If the team determines the behavior was not caused by the disability, the student is referred back to the administration for discipline as a general education student.

The same analysis applies whether the discipline is under the general student behavior policy or the good conduct rule for extracurricular activities.

The law makes one exception to the disciplinary treatment of students with disabilities. A student with a disability who violates drug or alcohol rules can be disciplined as if the student did not have a disability. Therefore, the student can be disciplined the same as a general education student for the same infraction without first holding a manifestation conference.

Extracurricular Activities

Section 504 is not a program mandate but, rather, an antidiscrimination law. Regarding extracurricular activities, the law states "a recipient shall ensure that handicapped persons participate with non-handicapped persons in such activities and services to the maximum extent appropriate to the needs of the handicapped person in question." 34 C.F.R. 104.34(b). The law does not require that students with disabilities be able to fully participate in all activities. Rather, students with disabilities must be afforded an equal opportunity to participate in activities. 34 C.F.R. 104.37(a).

In some instances the student's disability is physical, and a school district may want a doctor's note stating that the student is able to participate in the activity. A doctor's permission should not be requested arbitrarily, but only when the school district has a legitimate concern about the student's health and well-being.

The law requires not only that the student be eligible to participate in activities, but also that activities be accessible to the student. For example, a wheelchair bound student who wants to participate in choir needs to have a means of getting to the stage. The school district cannot exclude the student from participation because the school facilities are inaccessible.

Student Records

While there is a reference to the confidentiality of student records in Iowa law, the main body of law addressing the confidentiality of student records is in federal law. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) addresses the records of all students, both general education students and students receiving special education services. 20 U.S.C. § 1232(g) (1988); 34 C.F.R. 99 (1994). The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) expands on FERPA and makes some special provisions for the records of students receiving special education services. 20 U.S.C. § 1401 (1988); 34 C.F.R. 300.560 (1994). There are no special provisions in federal law addressing records of Section 504 students. However, while the general student records provisions apply, it may also be appropriate to incorporate certain provisions of the IDEA student records law into procedures for Section 504 students.

The federal law on access to student records is very detailed and must be strictly followed. Confidential student records are those which contain personally identifiable information. 34 C.F.R. 99.3 (1994). For students receiving special education services, student records containing personally identifiable information must be kept confidential at the collection, storage, disclosure and destruction stages. 34 C.F.R. 300.561 (1994). Personally identifiable information includes, but is not limited to:

- (1) the student's name;
- (2) the names of the student's parents or other family members;
- (3) the address of the student or student's family;
- (4) a personal identifier, such as a social security number or other student number; and
- (5) other information that would make the student's identity traceable. 34 C.F.R. 99.3.

Only the parents of the student, an eligible student, and certain listed public officials may view student records without a court order or permission from the parent or eligible student. An eligible student is a student who has reached 18 years of age or is attending an institution of postsecondary education. Id. Parents of an eligible student may access the student's records only with the written permission of the eligible student unless the eligible student is a dependent for tax purposes. Parents may be denied access to a student's records if the school district has a court order stating that the parents may not access the student's records. 34 C.F.R. 99.4.

Parents and eligible students have access to the student's records during the regular business hours of the school district. 34 C.F.R. 99.10. However, if the record is not immediately available, the school district must provide it within 45 days of the request. Id. Fees for copies of the records must be waived if it would prevent the parents or student from accessing the records. 34 C.F.R. 99.11. A fee may not be charged to search or retrieve information from student records. Id.

If the parents or an eligible student believe information in the student records is inaccurate, misleading or violates the privacy or other rights of the student, the parents or an eligible student may request the student records be amended. 34 C.F.R. 99.20. If the school district determines an amendment should be made to the student record, the amendment must be made and the parents or the eligible student informed of the decision in writing.

If the school district refuses to amend the student record, the parents or the eligible student may ask for a hearing before the school district, which is generally before an employee, not the board. 34 C.F.R. 99.21. If the request to amend the student record is further denied, the parents or the eligible student may place an explanatory letter in the student record commenting on the school district's decision and describing their disagreement. Id. Amendments and the explanatory letter become part of the student's record and must be maintained and disclosed like other student records. Id.

Student records may be disclosed in limited circumstances without parental or an eligible student's written permission if the student record is not disclosed to a third party. 34 C.F.R. 99.31. This disclosure may be made to officials in the school district whom the school district has determined have a legitimate educational interest.

Referral/Evaluation/Planning/Review Process

The Section 504 Coordinator should monitor that the following process has occurred:

(1) Referral

Referrals are accepted from parents, professional staff, students, and/or community agencies.

The presenting problem(s) and previous remedies are considered and reviewed. The summary should include all current information and recommendations.

(2) Notification

The school district notifies the parents or guardians, in writing, of the school's reason and intent to conduct an evaluation. The notice should include a description of the evaluation and of procedural safeguards.

(3) Evaluation

The school district evaluates all students with disabilities before making an initial placement or any subsequent, significant change in his or her placement.

(4) Placement

These factors were considered by a group of individuals knowledgeable about the student, evaluation, and placement options and accommodation/intervention.

- (a) evaluation results
- (b) Section 504 eligibility
- (c) the student's unmet needs
- (d) services and/or accommodations based on eligibility

(5) Implementation

The school district staff makes the necessary accommodations to allow for the student's disability. Parents should be consulted and given opportunity for input regarding the accommodations.

The Section 504 coordinator ensures that accommodations and/or services are implemented.

(6) Review

Each student's accommodations and/or services are reviewed periodically. The parent and student must be notified of their rights under Section 504 shortly before or during the meeting.

TEACHER/SUPPORT
STAFF
RESPONSIBILITIES

Common Concerns

Teachers and designated support staff are responsible for implementing the Section 504 plan for identified individuals. It is important that teachers and support staff are aware of the student's disability and the accommodation and/or related services needed for the student to benefit from any program activity offered by the school district. It is recommended that the student's teacher be a member of the Section 504 team determining eligibility and/or creating the plan for an eligible individual.

Noncompliance with the written Section 504 plan may result in court involvement.

The following are examples of accommodations/interventions that could be implemented in a Section 504 plan.

Work Production & Accuracy

These strategies can promote increased student work accuracy and production. Work accuracy is simply the percent correct or quality of assignments that are completed, while production is completing and turning in work. Poor work accuracy and completion can be related to poor academic skills, low motivation, and/or poor organization skills.

Simple Teaching Strategies/Techniques

- (1) Give extra credit for looking over a paper more than once.
- (2) Have an assigned place where all completed assignments are placed.
- (3) Allow the use of manipulatives or a calculator for checking accuracy on daily work.
- (4) Shorten assignments or work periods to coincide with attention span.
- (5) Use a timer or cardboard clock to show quitting time and to help children pace themselves.
- (6) Break assignments into smaller parts which allows for more frequent feedback.
- (7) Establish criteria for acceptable work and require students to correct assignments until these criteria are met.
- (8) Involve students in setting time limits.
- (9) Ask students to repeat directions before beginning a task.
- (10) Utilize the Premack principle of "work before play." Provide the student with rewards or preferred activities only after they have completed assignments with acceptable accuracy.
- (11) Give instructions in clear and simple sentences.
- (12) Provide an example of what a successfully completed assignment would look like.
- (13) Reduce the difficulty level of assignments.
- (14) Evaluate appropriateness of a task to determine if material is too easy or hard, or if the length of assignments is appropriate.
- (15) Have assignments clearly posted and/or utilize an individual assignment sheet.
- (16) Communicate regularly with the parent regarding work completion.
- (17) Highlight key words in directions for clarification.
- (18) Require the student to begin a task within a specified period of time.
- (19) Reduce the number of directions and steps; e.g., give the student each additional step after completion of the previous step.

- (20) Establish assignment rules; e.g., listen to instructions, start after directions are given, ask questions if you do not understand, begin the task when you know what to do, make certain you have all necessary materials, know where to turn in the assignment when completed.
- (21) Allow student the option of performing assignments at another time or place.
- (22) Schedule more difficult subjects in the morning or when the student learns best.
- (23) Have rules for work periods. Rules should clarify expectations and facilitate work production. Typical work period rules might address what to do when you are finished, when to ask for teacher help, and when you may visit with peers.
- (24) Have child orally state rules for work periods before beginning a task.
- (25) Allow alternative response modes; e.g., fill in answers instead of essays.
- (26) Provide high-interest, high-motivation tasks.
- (27) Use a mixture of high-interest and low-interest tasks; e.g., follow lecture with a hands-on activity.
- (28) Simplify and heighten visual presentations by using clearly printed, uncluttered worksheets.
- (29) Allow tape recording of assignments.
- (30) Assist student individually in setting goals and breaking them down into manageable units.
- (31) Ask questions such as, “What do you need to be able to do this?”
- (32) Provide examples and specific steps to accomplish the task.
- (33) Make positive statements defining the requirements of a completed activity; e.g., “Your math is finished when all ten problems are completed and corrected. You may work with Mary on your science project when you are finished.”
- (34) Praise specific behavior as, “Great! You finished your math.” Or, “Good work, you got three-fourths of them right.”
- (35) Utilize a syllabus with older students. An effective syllabus will specify both assignments and due dates. A comprehensive syllabus will provide students with a consistent reference for assignments.
- (36) Have some tasks the student can accomplish easily.
- (37) Rewrite directions at a lower reading level if student reads below grade level.
- (38) Indicate a definite starting and stopping point, visually and auditory.

Test Taking

Students perform poorly on tests for a variety of reasons. Students may be poorly motivated, they may lack prerequisite skills (such as reading or writing skills), they may have difficulty following directions or sustaining attention to the task. The most important aspect of intervening to improve student test performance is to target those student weaknesses that adversely affect test-taking performance. These strategies focus on test preparation and test-taking skills.

Simple Strategies

- (1) Before the test
 - (a) Confer with student individually and privately if you plan to modify the test for that student.
 - (b) Take the test yourself to make sure there is ample time for students to complete it.
 - (c) Provide both written and oral reminders of upcoming tests.
 - (d) Provide a structured study guide which matches the design of the test.

- (e) Allow students the opportunity to study with a peer.
- (f) Develop clear, readable, and uncluttered test forms. Allow ample space for student responses. Use lined answer spaces for essay or short answer tests.
- (g) Review the test to ensure that it assesses what was taught and how it was taught. If lessons focused on recalling facts, avoid essay question.
- (h) Adjust the readability of the test to the student's reading level.
- (i) Use of more frequent, shorter tests rather than long tests.
- (j) Give a practice test.
- (k) Limit each page to a single type of question (Multiple choice on one page, fill in the blank on one page, etc.)
- (l) Don't use trick questions.
- (m) If essay questions are given, provide an outline to help structure the response.
- (n) Underline or bold key words and phrases.

(2) During the test

- (a) Seat the student near the teacher so that he/she can be easily monitored and so that the teacher can assist the student with packing.
- (b) Allow the student extra time to complete the test.
- (c) Allow the student to take tests orally.
- (d) Avoid placing the student under the pressure of time constraints or completion.
- (e) Allow the student to take tests in an alternative site if he/she is distracted easily.
- (f) Provide short breaks during lengthy tests.
- (g) Avoid statements such as "Hurry and get finished," or "Do your best. This counts for one half of your grade."
- (h) Don't threaten dire consequences for failure.
- (i) Allow student to use his/her notes with the test. Teach the student how the notes go along with the test.

(3) After the test

- (a) Reward the student for improved performance.
- (b) Communicate positive information about a student's progress with his or her parents.
- (c) Allow students to retake tests after they have been given feedback and been re-taught.
- (d) Emphasize strengths rather than weaknesses in feedback after tests.

Attention to Instruction

These are teaching strategies for students who are not attentive during classroom instruction. The student may be easily distracted, stare off into space, sit and doodle, not follow along with materials, and/or be unable answer simple questions from a lesson as it is presented.

Simple Teaching Strategies:

- (1) Move into close proximity to help the student sustain attention.
- (2) Use prearranged nonverbal cues and signals to redirect the student to the lesson.

- (3) Maintain eye contact with the student while giving directions or other important information.
- (4) Ask the student to repeat directions.
- (5) Use very specific concrete language when giving directions. If possible use visual information and cues along with verbal information.
- (6) Seat the student in a position that will be the least distracting and that is close to the source of directions, explanations, or instructions.
- (7) When you redirect the student, use a calm and firm tone.
- (8) Inform the student of expectations in a one-on-one situation.
- (9) Avoid punishment such as lecturing, scolding, criticizing etc., as a way of providing consequences for unacceptable behavior.
- (10) Seat the student near role models who are not easily distracted themselves.
- (11) Use fast paced lessons in which you frequently ask students questions. Consider not having students raise their hands and rotating whom you call on.
- (12) Intersperse activities that include physical activity with more sedentary lessons.
- (13) Intersperse high interest activities with typical seat lessons.

Organizational Skills

The following strategies address student organizational difficulties. Organizational skills are primarily related to following directions, managing materials, completing assignments, and making transitions.

Simple Teaching Strategies:

- (1) Establish, post, and follow a consistent daily routine.
- (2) Perform periodic desk checks for all students and praise adequate desk organization.
- (3) Help the student put together a homework organizer such as a Trapper or folders.
- (4) Provide the student with reminders of assignment due date/time and standards for acceptable completion.
- (5) Use study guides to help organize test preparation.
- (6) Provide the student with note-taking guides or techniques.
- (7) Provide the student with checklists for proofing assignments that address graded elements.
- (8) Provide students time to organize and clean out their desks at the end of each day.
- (9) Teach test-taking and study skills.
- (10) Use an assignment sheet or homework organizer for older students.
- (11) Talk with the student's parents to create a plan for school/home transitions.
- (12) Assign a volunteer or work buddy to help the student with organizing materials and assignments.
- (13) Highlight direction words for students or help them learn to identify direction words and highlight or underline them.
- (14) Give a warning when transitions are about to occur. Provide specific directions for how transitions are to be carried out.
- (15) Allow the student to have an extra set of books at home.
- (16) Break directions down into small units.
- (17) Provide student with a list of needed materials.
- (18) Provide incentives for meeting organizational goals.

Impulse Control

These teaching strategies are for improving impulsive control. Typical examples of this behavior include talking out, out-of-seat, touching others, and other violations of classroom rules.

Simple Teaching Strategies:

- (1) Talk with the student prior to activities where difficulties typically occur and set goals for that activity together.
- (2) Briefly redirect the student when misbehavior occurs.
- (3) Provide comments on positive behavior as it occurs.
- (4) Ignore misbehavior when feasible.
- (5) Seat student away from persons or activities that appear to trigger impulsive behavior.
- (6) Set up a reward system for meeting mutually agreed upon behavioral goals.
- (7) Place a copy of the student's behavioral goals on their desk.
- (8) Help students develop problem solving skills. Helping students with these skills may involve additional resources such as the school counselor or AEA personnel.
- (9) Intervene before the student's behavior escalates.
- (10) Help the student identify acceptable means of achieving their desired ends or goals. For example, they may ask to get up and walk rather than leaving their seats without permission.
- (11) Use instructional techniques that call for a high rate of student responses.
- (12) Include breaks for physical activity in the daily schedule.
- (13) Provide students interesting activities to engage in when assignments have been completed.
- (14) Change instructional activities frequently and keep them fast paced.

Handwriting Quality

Poor handwriting is a concern frequently raised by teachers. While judgments of acceptable handwriting vary from teacher to teacher, you undoubtedly have in mind some student with handwriting concerns. Some children with poor handwriting may not have the skills necessary for success. You may need to consult an occupational therapist to determine the extent to which fine-motor deficiencies are compounding handwriting concerns.

Simple Teaching Strategies:

- (1) Provide the student with sturdy white paper with black lines to write on rather than newspaper print.
- (2) Allow the student to write on every other line when writing rough drafts.
- (3) Allow the student to select form (i.e., cursive or manuscript).
- (4) Permit liberal use of accommodations such as word processors, tape recorders, spell checkers, etc.
- (5) Avoid assigning writing assignments as punishment.
- (6) Do not grade handwriting. Do not penalize for misspellings or reversals.
- (7) Give the student a written copy of the board work if copying from the board is difficult.

- (8) Consider alternatives to paper-pencil tasks; i.e. making a filmstrip; keeping a diary; dramatizations; making a poster, mural, or display; performing a demonstration; panel discussion; radio broadcasts; illustration, etc.
- (9) Grade for content, not handwriting.
- (10) Allow the student to have a writing helper or secretary when completing the assignment is more important than working on handwriting.
- (11) Teach specific methods of self-monitoring for written work; e.g., “Did I write my best? Did I have spaces between words? Did I write on the lines?”
- (12) Have student proofread finished work.
- (13) Make sure the material being presented to the student is at a level that the student comprehends and that he/she is able to complete assignments. Check to see that the student uses his/her time wisely.
- (14) Frequently remind student of expectations for completing work neatly.
- (15) Praise the student for neatly completed assignments. At times, praise the student in front of other students.
- (16) Remind the student that work will be redone until it meets acceptable criteria.
- (17) Use advanced organizers or study guides to reduce the amount of written work necessary to complete assignments.

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973

The following is a description of the rights granted by federal law to students with disabilities. The intent of the law is to keep you fully informed concerning decisions about your child and to inform you of your rights if you disagree with any of these decisions.

You have the right to:

1. Have your child take part in, and receive benefits from public education programs without discrimination because of his/her disabling conditions.
2. Have the school district advise you of your rights under federal law.
3. Receive notice with respect to identification, evaluation, or placement of your child.
4. Have your child receive a free appropriate public education. This includes the right to be educated with non-disabled students to the maximum extent appropriate. It also includes the right to have the school district make reasonable accommodations to allow your child an equal opportunity to participate in school and school-related activities.
5. Have your child educated in facilities and receive services comparable to those provided non-disabled students.
6. Have your child receive special education and related services if s/he is found to be eligible under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.
7. Have evaluation, educational, and placement decisions based upon a variety of information sources, and by persons who know the student, the evaluation data, and placement and accommodation/intervention options.
8. Have transportation provided to and from an alternative placement setting at no greater cost to you than would be incurred if the student were placed in a program operated by the district.
9. Have your child be given an equal opportunity to participate in nonacademic and extracurricular activities offered by the district.
10. Examine all relevant records relating to decisions regarding your child's identification, evaluation, educational program, and placement.
11. Obtain copies of educational records at a reasonable cost unless the fee would effectively deny you access to the records.
12. A response from the school district to reasonable requests for explanations and interpretations of your child's records.
13. Request amendment of your child's educational records if there is reasonable cause to believe that they are inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of the privacy rights of your child. If the school district refuses this request for amendment, it shall notify you within a reasonable time and advise you of the right to a hearing.
14. Request mediation or an impartial due process hearing related to decisions or actions regarding your child's identification, evaluation, educational program or placement. You and the student may take part in the hearing and have an attorney represent you. Hearing requests must be made to _____.
15. Ask for payment of reasonable attorney fees if you are successful on your claim.
16. File a local grievance (Ask Section 504/Equity coordinator for various options.).

Resolution Facilitation

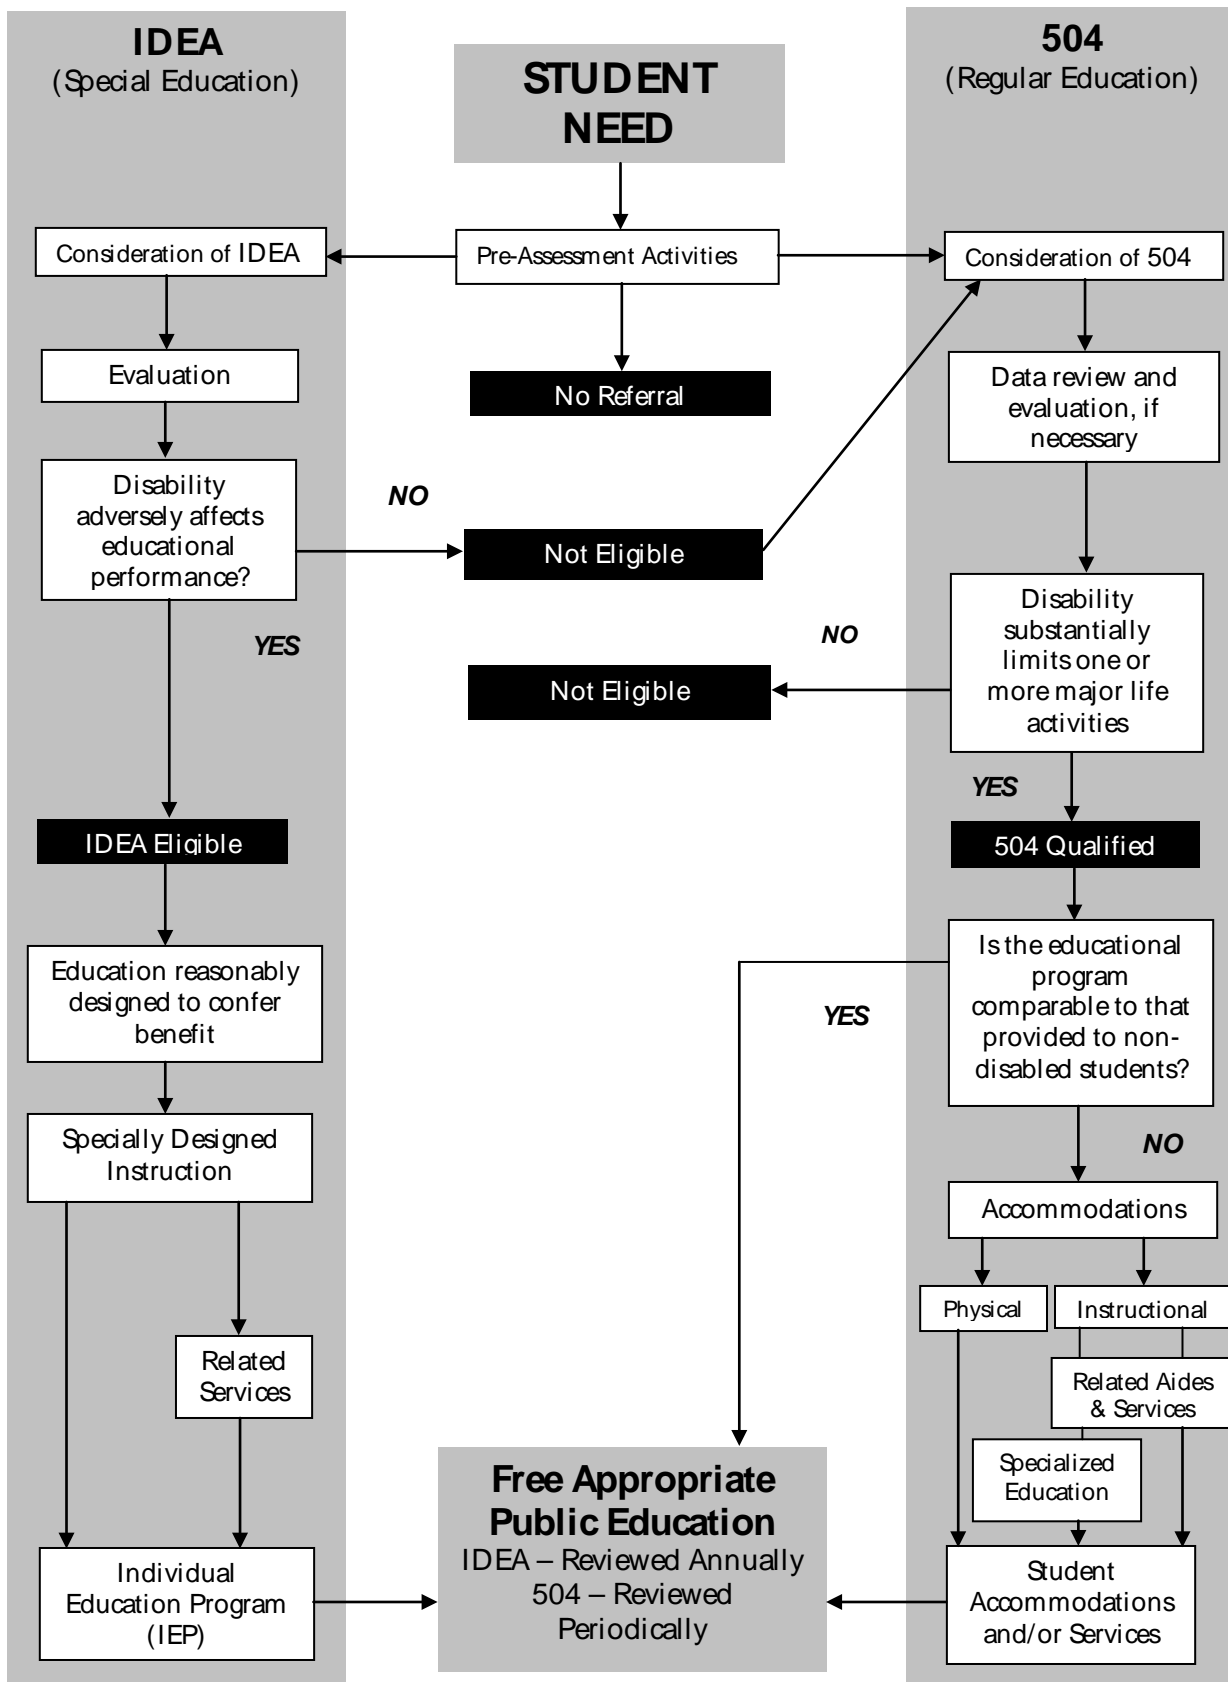

Parents and guardians are encouraged to resolve issues concerning Section 504 without first resorting to formal hearings and civil suits. The Resolution Facilitator process is available to provide an informal resolution-to-conflict with the assistance of a trained mediator. The process is initiated through the relevant Area Education Agency (AEA). If impartiality is a concern, a facilitator from a different AEA is available. For more information, go to <http://www.iowa.gov/educate/content/view/612/587/>.

Office of Civil Rights

The Office of Civil Rights is the federal entity with primary responsibility for ensuring compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. DEFINITIONS

Definitions

(Terms Relative to Section 504 and IDEA)

ACCOMODATIONS – Adjustments made by classroom teacher(s) and other school staff to enable the students to benefit from their education program. A plan should be developed outlining the accommodations.

BARRIER-FREE ENVIRONMENT – A school environment that contains no obstacles to accessibility and usability by students and other individuals with disabilities. Barriers can be physical and non-physical.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES PROTECTED UNDER SECTION 504 – Contagious diseases are those that can be transmitted from person to person. Examples are such diseases as AIDS, HIV, and tuberculosis.

DISABILITY – A “student with a disability” means: Any student who has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such an impairment or is regarded as having such an impairment. 34 C.F.R. 104.3(j).

EQUAL ACCESS – Equal opportunity of a qualified person with a disability to participate in and benefit from educational aids, benefits, or services.

IMPARTIAL HEARING – A procedural safeguard that allows an impartial hearing with opportunity for participation by the student's parents or guardian, representation by counsel, and a review procedure. Recipient school districts are required to establish and implement procedural safeguards that include notice and an opportunity for parents to review relevant records.

INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES EDUCATION ACT – Federal special education law and regulations. Amended the Education for All Handicapped Children Act (P.L. 94-142).

LEAST RESTRICTIVE ENVIRONMENT (LRE) – Students with disabilities should be educated along with nondisabled students to the maximum extent appropriate to the needs of the disabled students. This means that disabled students must be assigned to regular courses or classes if the students' needs can be met there.

MAJOR LIFE ACTIVITY – Functions such as caring for one’s self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working.

OFFICE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS (OCR) – Federal Agency having three primary responsibilities; investigating complaints, conducting compliance reviews, and providing technical assistance. The OCR office for Iowa is located at: Chicago Office, Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education, Citigroup Center, 500 W. Madison Street, Suite 1475, Chicago, IL 60661, Telephone: 312-730-1560, FAX: 312-730-1576; TDD: 877-521-2172.

PHYSICAL OR MENTAL IMPAIRMENT – (1) any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems:

neurological; musculoskeletal; special sense organs; respiratory, including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive; digestive; genitourinary; hemic and lymphatic; skin; and endocrine; or (2) any mental or physical disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities.

The term “physical or mental impairment” includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech, and hearing impairments, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, mental retardation, emotional illness, drug addiction, and alcoholism.

PLACEMENT – Includes any accommodation or service that has been determined necessary for students eligible under Section 504.

PRE-ASSESSMENT TEAM – A group of individuals knowledgeable about the student who work together in trying modifications and accommodations to help assist the student to succeed in his/her educational program. Every effort should be made to keep the student in the regular education program. A referral is made for an evaluation after all efforts have failed.

PROGRAM ACCESSIBILITY – Each school district will ensure programs and activities are accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. In many instances, programs and activities may be made accessible through slight modifications and/or adjustments in procedures, practices, and policies. In others, building renovation or construction may be required. But structural change is required only in instances where program accessibility cannot be achieved effectively through other means.

PROGRAM OR ACTIVITY – In the context of Section 504, this includes all operations of state and local agencies that receive federal funds. This includes colleges, universities, and/or school systems.

PUBLIC NOTICE – All school districts are required to provide public notice and internal notice (i.e., to staff and students) stating they do not discriminate on the basis of a disability, the name of the 504 coordinator, and procedural safe guards.

QUALIFIED STUDENT OR INDIVIDUAL – Any student or other individual who 1) has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities, 2) has a record of such an impairment, or 3) is regarded as having such an impairment.

REASONABLE ACCOMODATION – This term is more accurately used in employment discrimination cases. A Free and Appropriate Public Education (FAPE) under Section 504 requires that individual needs are met as adequately as those of the nondisabled are met. School districts are required to make adjustments to allow for known physical or mental impairments of students, individuals, or employees with disabilities.

SECTION 504 - The part of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 that guarantees specific rights in federally funded programs and activities to people who qualify as disabled. Section 504 states: “No otherwise qualified handicapped individual in the United States... shall, solely by reason of his handicap, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.”

SECTION 504 COORDINATOR – school districts employing 15 or more persons must assign a person to coordinate compliance with Section 504 regulations. It is recommended that all school districts appoint a Section 504 Coordinator. It is recommended that the same individual serve as the ADA/Equity Coordinator.

SELF-EVALUATION – Section 504 requires that federal fund recipients evaluate their programs, physical accessibility, and employment practices to determine the extent to which programs and activities require modification to ensure full participation by students with disabilities. These evaluations should be updated frequently.

TRANSITION PLAN – If a recipient determines that structural modifications are necessary to meet Section 504 program accessibility requirements, the school must develop a plan specifying the steps necessary to complete such changes and the time frame for completion. The document containing these steps and a recipient’s schedule for making structural changes is termed a “transition plan.” This Transition Plan should not be confused with a “transition plan” under IDEA which outlines an individual student’s transition goals and objectives on the IEP.

UNIFORM FEDERAL ACCESSIBILITY STANDARDS – Standards the federal government uses to meet Section 504’s accessibility requirements for the design, construction and alteration of buildings.

UNDUE HARDSHIPS – An action requiring significant difficulty or expense. Factors that are considered include; number of employees, number and type of facilities, size of budget, and nature and cost of the accommodation. The OCR has determined that there is no financial standard for undue hardship for education.

 - (iii) Provide a qualified handicapped person with an aid, benefit, or service that is not as effective as that provided to others;
 - (iv) Provide different or separate aid, benefits, or services to handicapped persons or to any class of handicapped persons unless such action is necessary to provide qualified handicapped persons with aid, benefits, or services that are as effective as those provided to others;
 - (v) Aid or perpetuate discrimination against a qualified handicapped person by providing significant assistance to an agency, organization, or person that discriminates on the basis of handicap in providing any aid, benefit, or service to beneficiaries of the recipients program or activity;
 - (vi) Deny a qualified handicapped person the opportunity to participate as a member of planning or advisory boards; or
 - (vii) Otherwise limit a qualified handicapped person in the enjoyment of any right, privilege, advantage, or opportunity enjoyed by others receiving an aid, benefit, or service.
- (2) For purposes of this part, aids, benefits, and services, to be equally effective, are not required to produce the identical result or level of achievement for handicapped and nonhandicapped persons, but must afford handicapped persons equal opportunity to obtain the same result, to gain the same benefit, or to reach the same level of achievement, in the most integrated setting appropriate to the person's needs.
- (3) Despite the existence of separate or different aid, benefits, or services provided in accordance with this part, a recipient may not deny a qualified handicapped person the opportunity to participate in such aid, benefits, or services that are not separate or different.
- (4) A recipient may not, directly or through contractual or other arrangements, utilize criteria or methods of administration
 - (i) that have the effect of subjecting qualified handicapped persons to discrimination on the basis of handicap,
 - (ii) that have the purpose or effect of defeating or substantially impairing accomplishment of the objectives of the recipient's program or activity with respect to handicapped persons, or
 - (iii) that perpetuate the discrimination of another recipient if both recipients are subject to common administrative control or are agencies of the same State.

- (5) In determining the site or location of a facility, an applicant for assistance or a recipient may not make selections
 - (i) that have the effect of excluding handicapped persons from, denying them the benefits of, or otherwise subjecting them to discrimination under any program or activity that receives Federal financial assistance or
 - (ii) that have the purpose or effect of defeating or substantially impairing the accomplishment of the objectives of the program or activity with respect to handicapped persons.
 - (6) As used in this section, the aid, benefit, or service provided under a program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance includes any aid, benefit, or service provided in or through a facility that has been constructed, expanded, altered, leased or rented, or otherwise acquired, in whole or in part, with Federal financial assistance.
- (c) Aid, benefits, or services limited by Federal law. The exclusion of nonhandicapped persons from aid, benefits, or services limited by Federal statute or executive order to handicapped persons or the exclusion of a specific class of handicapped persons from aid, benefits, or services limited by Federal statute or executive order to a different class of handicapped persons is not prohibited by this part.

104.5 Assurances required.

- (a) Assurances. An applicant for Federal financial assistance to which this part applies shall submit an assurance, on a form specified by the Assistant Secretary, that the program or activity will be operated in compliance with this part. An applicant may incorporate these assurances by reference in subsequent applications to the Department.
- (b) Duration of obligation.
- (1) In the case of Federal financial assistance extended in the form of real property or to provide real property or structures on the property, the assurance will obligate the recipient or, in the case of a subsequent transfer, the transferee, for the period during which the real property or structures are used for the purpose for which Federal financial assistance is extended or for another purpose involving the provision of similar services or benefits.
 - (2) In the case of Federal financial assistance extended to provide personal property, the assurance will obligate the recipient for the period during which it retains ownership or possession of the property.
 - (3) In all other cases the assurance will obligate the recipient for the period during which Federal financial assistance is extended.
- (c) Covenants.
- (1) Where Federal financial assistance is provided in the form of real property or interest in the property from the Department, the instrument effecting or recording this transfer shall contain a covenant running with the land to assure nondiscrimination for the period during which the real property is used for a purpose for which the Federal financial assistance is extended or for another purpose involving the provision of similar services or benefits.
 - (2) Where no transfer of property is involved but property is purchased or improved with Federal financial assistance, the recipient shall agree to include the covenant described in paragraph (b)(2) of this section in the instrument effecting or recording any subsequent transfer of the property.

- (3) Where Federal financial assistance is provided in the form of real property or interest in the property from the Department, the covenant shall also include a condition coupled with a right to be reserved by the Department to revert title to the property in the event of a breach of the covenant. If a transferee of real property proposes to mortgage or otherwise encumber the real property as security for financing construction of new, or improvement of existing, facilities on the property for the purposes for which the property was transferred, the Assistant Secretary may, upon request of the transferee and if necessary to accomplish such financing and upon such conditions as he or she deems appropriate, agree to forbear the exercise of such right to revert title for so long as the lien of such mortgage or other encumbrance remains effective.

104.6 Remedial action, voluntary action, and self-evaluation.

(a) Remedial action.

- (1) If the Assistant Secretary finds that a recipient has discriminated against persons on the basis of handicap in violation of section 504 or this part, the recipient shall take such remedial action as the Assistant Secretary deems necessary to overcome the effects of the discrimination.
- (2) Where a recipient is found to have discriminated against persons on the basis of handicap in violation of section 504 or this part and where another recipient exercises control over the recipient that has discriminated, the Assistant Secretary, where appropriate, may require either or both recipients to take remedial action.
- (3) The Assistant Secretary may, where necessary to overcome the effects of discrimination in violation of section 504 or this part, require a recipient to take remedial action
 - (i) with respect to handicapped persons who are no longer participants in the recipient's program or activity but who were participants in the program or activity when such discrimination occurred or
 - (ii) with respect to handicapped persons who would have been participants in the program or activity had the discrimination not occurred.

- (b) Voluntary action. A recipient may take steps, in addition to any action that is required by this part, to overcome the effects of conditions that resulted in limited participation in the recipient's program or activity by qualified handicapped persons.

(c) Self-evaluation.

- (1) A recipient shall, within one year of the effective date of this part:
 - (i) Evaluate, with the assistance of interested persons, including handicapped persons or organizations representing handicapped persons, its current policies and practices and the effects thereof that do not or may not meet the requirements of this part;
 - (ii) Modify, after consultation with interested persons, including handicapped persons or organizations representing handicapped persons, any policies and practices that do not meet the requirements of this part; and
 - (iii) Take, after consultation with interested persons, including handicapped persons or organizations representing handicapped persons, appropriate remedial steps to eliminate the effects of any discrimination that resulted from adherence to these policies and practices.
- (2) A recipient that employs fifteen or more persons shall, for at least three years following completion of the evaluation required under paragraph (c)(1) of this section, maintain on file, make available for public inspection, and provide to the Assistant Secretary upon request:

- (i) A list of the interested persons consulted,
- (ii) A description of areas examined and any problems identified, and
- (iii) A description of any modifications made and of any remedial steps taken.

104.7 Designation of responsible employee and adoption of grievance procedures.

- (a) Designation of responsible employee. A recipient that employs fifteen or more persons shall designate at least one person to coordinate its efforts to comply with this part.
- (b) Adoption of grievance procedures. A recipient that employs fifteen or more persons shall adopt grievance procedures that incorporate appropriate due process standards and that provide for the prompt and equitable resolution of complaints alleging any action prohibited by this part. Such procedures need not be established with respect to complaints from applicants for employment or from applicants for admission to postsecondary educational institutions.

104.8 Notice.

- (a) A recipient that employs fifteen or more persons shall take appropriate initial and continuing steps to notify participants, beneficiaries, applicants, and employees, including those with impaired vision or hearing, and unions or professional organizations holding collective bargaining or professional agreements with the recipient that it does not discriminate on the basis of handicap in violation of section 504 and this part. The notification shall state, where appropriate, that the recipient does not discriminate in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its program or activity. The notification shall also include an identification of the responsible employee designated pursuant to Sec. 104.7(a). A recipient shall make the initial notification required by this paragraph within 90 days of the effective date of this part. Methods of initial and continuing notification may include the posting of notices, publication in newspapers and magazines, placement of notices in recipients' publication, and distribution of memoranda or other written communications.
- (b) If a recipient publishes or uses recruitment materials or publications containing general information that it makes available to participants, beneficiaries, applicants, or employees, it shall include in those materials or publications a statement of the policy described in paragraph (a) of this section. A recipient may meet the requirement of this paragraph either by including appropriate inserts in existing materials and publications or by revising and reprinting the materials and publications.

104.9 Administrative requirements for small recipients.

The Assistant Secretary may require any recipient with fewer than fifteen employees, or any class of such recipients, to comply with Sec. Sec. 104.7 and 104.8, in whole or in part, when the Assistant Secretary finds a violation of this part or finds that such compliance will not significantly impair the ability of the recipient or class of recipients to provide benefits or services.

104.10 Effect of state or local law or other requirements and effect of employment opportunities.

- (a) The obligation to comply with this part is not obviated or alleviated by the existence of any state or local law or other requirement that, on the basis of handicap, imposes prohibitions or limits upon the eligibility of qualified handicapped persons to receive services or to practice any occupation or profession.
- (b) The obligation to comply with this part is not obviated or alleviated because employment opportunities in any occupation or profession are or may be more limited for handicapped persons than for nonhandicapped persons.

[Subpart B -- Employment Practices, Omitted]

Subpart C -- Accessibility

104.21 Discrimination prohibited.

No qualified handicapped person shall, because a recipient's facilities are inaccessible to or unusable by handicapped persons, be denied the benefits of, be excluded from participation in, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity to which this part applies.

104.22 Existing facilities.

- (a) Accessibility. A recipient shall operate its program or activity so that when each part is viewed in its entirety, it is readily accessible to handicapped persons. This paragraph does not require a recipient to make each of its existing facilities or every part of a facility accessible to and usable by handicapped persons.
- (b) Methods. A recipient may comply with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section through such means as redesign of equipment, reassignment of classes or other services to accessible buildings, assignment of aides to beneficiaries, home visits, delivery of health, welfare, or other social services at alternate accessible sites, alteration of existing facilities and construction of new facilities in conformance with the requirements of Sec. 104.23, or any other methods that result in making its program or activity accessible to handicapped persons. A recipient is not required to make structural changes in existing facilities where other methods are effective in achieving compliance with paragraph (a) of this section. In choosing among available methods for meeting the requirement of paragraph (a) of this section, a recipient shall give priority to those methods that serve handicapped persons in the most integrated setting appropriate.
- (c) Small health, welfare, or other social service providers. If a recipient with fewer than fifteen employees that provides health, welfare, or other social services finds, after consultation with a handicapped person seeking its services, that there is no method of complying with paragraph (a) of this section other than making a significant alteration in its existing facilities, the recipient may, as an alternative, refer the handicapped person to other providers of those services that are accessible.
- (d) Time period. A recipient shall comply with the requirement of paragraph (a) of this section within sixty days of the effective date of this part except that where structural changes in facilities are necessary, such changes shall be made within three years of the effective date of this part, but in any event as expeditiously as possible.

- (e) Transition plan. In the event that structural changes to facilities are necessary to meet the requirement of paragraph (a) of this section, a recipient shall develop, within six months of the effective date of this part, a transition plan setting forth the steps necessary to complete such changes. The plan shall be developed with the assistance of interested persons, including handicapped persons or organizations representing handicapped persons. A copy of the transition plan shall be made available for public inspection. The plan shall, at a minimum:
- (1) Identify physical obstacles in the recipient's facilities that limit the accessibility of its program or activity to handicapped persons;
 - (2) Describe in detail the methods that will be used to make the facilities accessible;
 - (3) Specify the schedule for taking the steps necessary to achieve full accessibility in order to comply with paragraph (a) of this section and, if the time period of the transition plan is longer than one year, identify the steps of that will be taken during each year of the transition period; and
 - (4) Indicate the person responsible for implementation of the plan.
- (f) Notice. The recipient shall adopt and implement procedures to ensure that interested persons, including persons with impaired vision or hearing, can obtain information as to the existence and location of services, activities, and facilities that are accessible to and usable by handicapped persons.

104.23 New construction.

- (a) Design and construction. Each facility or part of a facility constructed by, on behalf of, or for the use of a recipient shall be designed and constructed in such manner that the facility or part of the facility is readily accessible to and usable by handicapped persons, if the construction was commenced after the effective date of this part.
- (b) Alteration. Each facility or part of a facility which is altered by, on behalf of, or for the use of a recipient after the effective date of this part in a manner that affects or could affect the usability of the facility or part of the facility shall, to the maximum extent feasible, be altered in such manner that the altered portion of the facility is readily accessible to and usable by handicapped persons.
- (c) Conformance with Uniform Federal Accessibility Standards.
- (1) Effective as of January 18, 1991, design, construction, or alteration of buildings in conformance with sections 3-8 of the Uniform Federal Accessibility Standards (UFAS) (Appendix A to 41 CFR subpart 101-19.6) shall be deemed to comply with the requirements of this section with respect to those buildings. Departures from particular technical and scoping requirements of UFAS by the use of other methods are permitted where substantially equivalent or greater access to and usability of the building is provided.
 - (2) For purposes of this section, section 4.1.6(1)(g) of UFAS shall be interpreted to exempt from the requirements of UFAS only mechanical rooms and other spaces that, because of their intended use, will not require accessibility to the public or beneficiaries or result in the employment or residence therein of persons with physical handicaps.

- (3) This section does not require recipients to make building alterations that have little likelihood of being accomplished without removing or altering a load-bearing structural member.

Subpart D -- Preschool, Elementary, and Secondary Education

104.31 Application of this subpart.

Subpart D applies to preschool, elementary, secondary, and adult education programs or activities that receive Federal financial assistance and to recipients that operate, or that receive Federal financial assistance for the operation of, such programs or activities.

104.32 Location and notification.

A recipient that operates a public elementary or secondary education program or activity shall annually:

- (a) Undertake to identify and locate every qualified handicapped person residing in the recipient's jurisdiction who is not receiving a public education; and
- (b) Take appropriate steps to notify handicapped persons and their parents or guardians of the recipient's duty under this subpart.

104.33 Free appropriate public education.

- (a) General. A recipient that operates a public elementary or secondary education program or activity shall provide a free appropriate public education to each qualified handicapped person who is in the recipient's jurisdiction, regardless of the nature or severity of the person's handicap.

(b) Appropriate education.

- (1) For the purpose of this subpart, the provision of an appropriate education is the provision of regular or special education and related aids and services that
 - (i) are designed to meet individual educational needs of handicapped persons as adequately as the needs of nonhandicapped persons are met and
 - (ii) are based upon adherence to procedures that satisfy the requirements of Sec. Sec. 104.34, 104.35, and 104.36.
- (2) Implementation of an Individualized Education Program developed in accordance with the Education of the Handicapped Act is one means of meeting the standard established in paragraph (b)(1)(i) of this section.
- (3) A recipient may place a handicapped person or refer such a person for aid, benefits, or services other than those that it operates or provides as its means of carrying out the requirements of this subpart. If so, the recipient remains responsible for ensuring that the requirements of this subpart are met with respect to any handicapped person so placed or referred.

(c) Free education

- (1) General. For the purpose of this section, the provision of a free education is the provision of educational and related services without cost to the handicapped person or to his or her parents or guardian, except for those fees that are imposed on non-handicapped persons or their parents or guardian. It may consist either of the provision of free services or, if a recipient places a handicapped person or refers such person for aid, benefits, or services not operated or provided by the recipient as its means of carrying out the requirements of this subpart, of payment for the costs of the aid, benefits, or services. Funds available from any public or private agency may be used to meet the requirements of this subpart. Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve an insurer or similar third party from an otherwise valid obligation to provide or pay for services provided to a handicapped person.

- (2) Transportation. If a recipient places a handicapped person or refers such person for aid, benefits, or services not operated or provided by the recipient as its means of carrying out the requirements of this subpart, the recipient shall ensure that adequate transportation to and from the aid, benefits, or services is provided at no greater cost than would be incurred by the person or his or her parents or guardian if the person were placed in the aid, benefits, or services operated by the recipient.
- (3) Residential placement. If a public or private residential placement is necessary to provide a free appropriate public education to a handicapped person because of his or her handicap, the placement, including non-medical care and room and board, shall be provided at no cost to the person or his or her parents or guardian.
- (4) Placement of handicapped persons by parents. If a recipient has made available, in conformance with the requirements of this section and Sec. 104.34, a free appropriate public education to a handicapped person and the person's parents or guardian choose to place the person in a private school, the recipient is not required to pay for the person's education in the private school. Disagreements between a parent or guardian and a recipient regarding whether the recipient has made a free appropriate public education available or otherwise regarding the question of financial responsibility are subject to the due process procedures of Sec. 104.36.

- (d) Compliance. A recipient may not exclude any qualified handicapped person from a public elementary or secondary education after the effective date of this part. A recipient that is not, on the effective date of this regulation, in full compliance with the other requirements of the preceding paragraphs of this section shall meet such requirements at the earliest practicable time and in no event later than September 1, 1978.

104.34 Educational setting.

- (a) Academic setting. A recipient to which this subpart applies shall educate, or shall provide for the education of, each qualified handicapped person in its jurisdiction with persons who are not handicapped to the maximum extent appropriate to the needs of the handicapped person. A recipient shall place a handicapped person in the regular educational environment operated by the recipient unless it is demonstrated by the recipient that the education of the person in the regular environment with the use of supplementary aids and services cannot be achieved satisfactorily. Whenever a recipient places a person in a setting other than the regular educational environment pursuant to this paragraph, it shall take into account the proximity of the alternate setting to the person's home.
- (b) Nonacademic settings. In providing or arranging for the provision of nonacademic and extracurricular services and activities, including meals, recess periods, and the services and activities set forth in Sec.104.37(a)(2), a recipient shall ensure that handicapped persons participate with nonhandicapped persons in such activities and services to the maximum extent appropriate to the needs of the handicapped person in question.
- (c) Comparable facilities. If a recipient, in compliance with paragraph (a) of this section, operates a facility that is identifiable as being for handicapped persons, the recipient shall ensure that the facility and the services and activities provided therein are comparable to the other facilities, services, and activities of the recipient.

104.35 Evaluation and placement.

- (a) Preplacement evaluation. A recipient that operates a public elementary or secondary education program or activity shall conduct an evaluation in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section of any person who, because of handicap, needs or is believed to need special education or related services before taking any action with respect to the initial placement of the person in regular or special education and any subsequent significant change in placement.
- (b) Evaluation procedures. A recipient to which this subpart applies shall establish standards and procedures for the evaluation and placement of persons who, because of handicap, need or are believed to need special education or related services which ensure that:
 - (1) Tests and other evaluation materials have been validated for the specific purpose for which they are used and are administered by trained personnel in conformance with the instructions provided by their producer;
 - (2) Tests and other evaluation materials include those tailored to assess specific areas of educational need and not merely those which are designed to provide a single general intelligence quotient; and
 - (3) Tests are selected and administered so as best to ensure that, when a test is administered to a student with impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills, the test results accurately reflect the student's aptitude or achievement level or whatever other factor the test purports to measure, rather than reflecting the student's impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills (except where those skills are the factors that the test purports to measure).
- (c) Placement procedures. In interpreting evaluation data and in making placement decisions, a recipient shall
 - (1) draw upon information from a variety of sources, including aptitude and achievement tests, teacher recommendations, physical condition, social or cultural background, and adaptive behavior,
 - (2) establish procedures to ensure that information obtained from all such sources is documented and carefully considered,
 - (3) ensure that the placement decision is made by a group of persons, including persons knowledgeable about the child, the meaning of the evaluation data, and the placement options, and
 - (4) ensure that the placement decision is made in conformity with Sec. 104.34.
- (d) Reevaluation. A recipient to which this section applies shall establish procedures, in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, for periodic reevaluation of students who have been provided special education and related services. A reevaluation procedure consistent with the Education for the Handicapped Act is one means of meeting this requirement.

104.36 Procedural safeguards.

A recipient that operates a public elementary or secondary education program or activity shall establish and implement, with respect to actions regarding the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of persons who, because of handicap, need or are believed to need special instruction or related services, a system of procedural safeguards that includes notice, an opportunity for the parents or guardian of the person to examine relevant records, an impartial hearing with opportunity for participation by the person's parents or guardian and representation by counsel, and a review procedure. Compliance with the procedural safeguards of section 615 of the Education of the Handicapped Act is one means of meeting this requirement.

104.37 Nonacademic services.

(a) General.

- (1) A recipient to which this subpart applies shall provide non-academic and extracurricular services and activities in such manner as is necessary to afford handicapped students an equal opportunity for participation in such services and activities.
- (2) Nonacademic and extracurricular services and activities may include counseling services, physical recreational athletics, transportation, health services, recreational activities, special interest groups or clubs sponsored by the recipients, referrals to agencies which provide assistance to handicapped persons, and employment of students, including both employment by the recipient and assistance in making available outside employment.

(b) Counseling services. A recipient to which this subpart applies that provides personal, academic, or vocational counseling, guidance, or placement services to its students shall provide these services without discrimination on the basis of handicap. The recipient shall ensure that qualified handicapped students are not counseled toward more restrictive career objectives than are nonhandicapped students with similar interests and abilities.

(c) Physical education and athletics.

- (1) In providing physical education courses and athletics and similar aid, benefits, or services to any of its students, a recipient to which this subpart applies may not discriminate on the basis of handicap. A recipient that offers physical education courses or that operates or sponsors interscholastic, club, or intramural athletics shall provide to qualified handicapped students an equal opportunity for participation.
- (2) A recipient may offer to handicapped students physical education and athletic activities that are separate or different from those offered to nonhandicapped students only if separation or differentiation is consistent with the requirements of Sec. 104.34 and only if no qualified handicapped student is denied the opportunity to compete for teams or to participate in courses that are not separate or different.

104.37 Nonacademic services.

(a) General.

- (1) A recipient to which this subpart applies shall provide non-academic and extracurricular services and activities in such manner as is necessary to afford handicapped students an equal opportunity for participation in such services and activities.
- (2) Nonacademic and extracurricular services and activities may include counseling services, physical recreational athletics, transportation, health services, recreational activities, special interest groups or clubs sponsored by the recipients, referrals to agencies which provide assistance to handicapped persons, and employment of students, including both employment by the recipient and assistance in making available outside employment.

- (b) Counseling services. A recipient to which this subpart applies that provides personal, academic, or vocational counseling, guidance, or placement services to its students shall provide these services without discrimination on the basis of handicap. The recipient shall ensure that qualified handicapped students are not counseled toward more restrictive career objectives than are nonhandicapped students with similar interests and abilities.
- (c) Physical education and athletics.
- (1) In providing physical education courses and athletics and similar aid, benefits, or services to any of its students, a recipient to which this subpart applies may not discriminate on the basis of handicap. A recipient that offers physical education courses or that operates or sponsors interscholastic, club, or intramural athletics shall provide to qualified handicapped students an equal opportunity for participation.
 - (2) A recipient may offer to handicapped students physical education and athletic activities that are separate or different from those offered to nonhandicapped students only if separation or differentiation is consistent with the requirements of Sec. 104.34 and only if no qualified handicapped student is denied the opportunity to compete for teams or to participate in courses that are not separate or different.

104.39 Private education.

- (a) A recipient that provides private elementary or secondary education may not, on the basis of handicap, exclude a qualified handicapped person if the person can, with minor adjustments, be provided an appropriate education, as defined in Sec. 104.33(b)(1), within that recipient's program or activity.
- (b) A recipient to which this section applies may not charge more for the provision of an appropriate education to handicapped persons than to nonhandicapped persons except to the extent that any additional charge is justified by a substantial increase in cost to the recipient.
- (c) A recipient to which this section applies that provides special education shall do so in accordance with the provisions of Sec. Sec.104.35 and 104.36. Each recipient to which this section applies is subject to the provisions of Sec. Sec.104.34, 104.37, and 104.38.

Grievance Procedures: Major Issues

An internal grievance procedure is a convenient vehicle for dealing with small problems before they become big ones. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Gender Equity), Section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Disability Equity) and Chapter 19B.11 of the Iowa Code (Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action) all require educational agencies to have a procedure for processing complaints of discrimination.

The grievance procedure must be available to students, employees, applicants for employment and parents of students in elementary/secondary schools. The procedure should cover grievances claiming discrimination on the basis of gender, race, national origin, religion, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identify and disability.

Although grievance procedures may take varying forms, they should clearly specify the format and procedures for filing grievances. They should clearly specify any applicable time limits in the process. The grievance procedure should clearly identify the institutional/agency staff that has responsibility for the receipt of grievance and the facilitation of the grievance process (usually the local educational equity/affirmative action coordinator). Specific forms for filing and documenting grievances should be available.

Grievance procedures get used only when people know they exist. The laws require that information about the grievance procedure be disseminated to students, employees, parents of students, and applicants for employment on an annual or on-going basis. Information about the grievance procedure must be included in the major annual publications or formal communications targeted at these groups.

The master employee contract grievance procedure may be used as the non-discrimination grievance procedure for employees, but only if two conditions are met. The first is that there be a non-discrimination clause in the master contract. The second condition is that employees be notified annually or in an on-going fashion in employee handbooks that the master employee contract grievance procedure will serve as the non-discrimination grievance procedure for employees.

There may be a need to make modifications in this model to fit the context of a community college, area education agency, or school district.

Model Grievance Procedures

Students, parents of students, employees, and applicants for employment in the _____ school district/area education agency/community college shall have the right to file a formal complaint alleging discrimination under federal or state regulations requiring non-discrimination in programs and employment.

Level One – Principal, Immediate Supervisor or Personnel Contact Person (Informal and Optional – may be bypassed by the grievant)

Employees with a complaint of discrimination based upon their gender, race, national origin, religion, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability are encouraged to first discuss it with their principal, dean, or immediate supervisor, with the objective of resolving the matter informally. A student, a parent of a student or an applicant for employment with a complaint of discrimination based upon their gender, race, national origin, religion, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability are encouraged to discuss it with the instructor, counselor, supervisor, building administrator, program administrator, or personnel contact person directly involved.

Level Two – The Equity Coordinator

If the grievance is not resolved at level one and the grievant wishes to pursue the grievance, they may formalize it by filing a complaint in writing on a Grievance filing form, which may be obtained from the Educational Equity Coordinator. The complaint shall state the nature of the grievance and the remedy requested. The filing of the formal, written complaint at level two must be within fifteen (15) working days from the date of the event giving rise to the grievance, or from the date the grievant could reasonably become aware of such occurrence. The grievant may request that a meeting concerning the complaint be held with the Educational Equity Coordinator. A minor student may be accompanied at that meeting by a parent or guardian. The Equity Coordinator shall investigate the complaint and attempt to resolve it. A written report from the Equity Coordinator regarding action taken will be sent to the involved parties within fifteen (15) working days after receipt of the complaint.

Level Three – The Grievance Committee

If the grievance is not resolved at level two, the grievant may appeal it at level three by presenting a written appeal to the Grievance Committee within ten (10) working days after the grievant receive the report from the Equity Coordinator. The Grievance Committee shall include five persons including one administrator, one instructor/teacher/consultant, one classified/non-certificated employee, one student and one parent/community representative. At least two members of the Grievance Committee shall be selected from the current Educational Equity Advisory Committee (Multicultural, Non-sexist Education/Affirmative Action Advisory Committee(s)). The Grievance Committee shall include both men and women and reflect racial/ethnic diversity and persons with disabilities when possible. The grievant may request a meeting with the Grievance Committee to discuss the appeal and the Grievance Committee may request a meeting with the grievant. A decision will be rendered by the Grievance Committee within ten (10) working days after receipt of the written appeal.

Level Four – Superintendent/Administrator

If the complaint is not resolved at level three, the grievant may appeal it to level four by presenting a written appeal to the Superintendent/Administrator within ten (10) working days after the grievant receives the report from the Grievance Committee. The grievant may request a meeting with the Superintendent/Administrator or his/her designee. The Superintendent/Administrator may request a meeting with the grievant to discuss the appeal. A decision will be rendered by the Superintendent/Administrator or his/her designee within ten (10) working days after the receipt of the written appeal.

This procedure in no way denies the right of the grievant to file formal complaints with the Iowa Civil Rights Commission, the federal Office of Civil Rights, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Iowa Department of Education for mediation or rectification of civil rights grievances, or to seek private counsel for complaints alleging discrimination.
